

What's Your Story?

In a time when every brand in every industry is pushing to get its story in front of its marketplace, you need an ally that help you make a difference. Your story is your ticket to building a brand people want to be a part of. That's where Commercial Construction & Renovation enters the picture. Whatever your brand requires print, digital, social, custom publications or events to share its story, we can deliver.

Driven by our bi-monthly magazine and newsletter, Commercial Construction & Renovation is one of the industry's most powerful resources—a trusted source for how today's construction executives get their jobs done. Add to it a series of unique and exclusive networking events, and a growing online and social presence, and story will reach the people who need it the most.

See how we can help you share your story today.

Our Mission

Commercial Construction & Renovation helps our subscribers design, build and maintain better commercial facilities by delivering content to meet the information needs of today's high level executives. Our content spans the design, construction and facilities operations of major commercial construction segments—retail, hospitality, restaurants and other commercial sectors. On the pages of our magazine, you will find information relevant to the collaborative management process required to complete projects on time and on budget, and to efficiently manage these facilities.

Content that Matters

If you want to stay connected with pulse of the ever-changing commercial construction industry, Commercial Construction & Renovation has you covered. Check out our bi-monthly print and digital magazines, and newsletter. Follow our timely social media feeds. Regardless how you choose to get the information you need, we tell the stories our industry wants to hear.

Executive Getaways

Connections matter. So why not make the ones that can help transform your business. Our high-level, interactive networking events are where today's commercial construction executives want to be. Get the most up-to-date best practices and industry resources during our insightful roundtable discussions, one-on-one meetings and intimate bonding adventures.

Executive Summit

If you haven't been to our Executive Summit, you don't know what you're missing. With more than 120 of the industry's leading end-users on hand, your brand's presence is a must. Getting up close and personal with some of the industry's key retailers, hoteliers, restaurateurs, and hospital and education executives guarantees you a strategic seat at the table.

CCRP

If you're looking to network with some of the industry's leading commercial construction professionals in a diverse, intimate setting, our Commercial Construction & Renovation People (CCRP) events are your ticket to ride. Held in a number of select cities around the country, CCRP puts you in front of the people who matter. Share drinks and hors d'oeuvres, and build the kind of relationships that make a difference.

Socially Speaking

Our online presence helps keep you informed on the projects, people and trends shaping the commercial construction industry. All you have to do is follow us @ccrmag or visit www.ccr-mag.com.
